CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS – 2012 CONFERENCES

*Submissions accepted through December 31, 2011

The Michigan Self-Insurers' Association (MSIA) is accepting proposals for educational presentations for the 2012 Spring Conference. The event will take place May 30, 2012 – June 1, 2012 at the Grand Traverse Resort & Spa in Acme, Michigan.

We are also accepting proposals for our 2012 Fall Conference, which will take place at the Suburban Collection Showplace in Novi, Michigan on Thursday October 18, 2012.

These conferences feature professional development sessions with a focus on Michigan Workers' Compensation that offer continuing education credits. Presentation sessions can be 30 minutes to 1 hour in length.

The attendees include professionals in workers' compensation, human resources, third party administrators, occupational safety and health, claims control and risk management, rehabilitation, and the legal field. Thus, presenters have the opportunity to introduce themselves and their knowledge to the entire audience.

We are looking for presentations that address new and current topics, incorporate creative learning strategies, and provide a strictly educational experience to our attendees. The presentation must not promote a specific business, product, or service.

SUBMISSION AND SELECTION

The submission deadline for your application is December 31, 2011. The MSIA Conference Committees will evaluate and select the final presentation applicants. Regarding the Spring Conference, we will not consider proposals received after December 31 unless a previously assigned presenter canceled and we need to replace them.

You will receive notification by February 29, 2012, if the committee should choose you to present at the conference that you have indicated a desire for on your application. Selected applicants will not receive compensation for their services. However, they do receive complimentary registration to attend all educational events and included meals at the conference for which you will be presenting.

Selected applicants must agree to submit their presentation and handout materials by April 31, 2012 for the Spring Conference. The selected applicants for the Fall Conference must agree to submit their presentation and handout materials by September 15, 2012. We will review presentations for accreditation approval and provide handout materials in attendee packets during conference registration.

Disclosure of Perceived Conflict

Conflict of interest does not disqualify anyone from participation, but presenters shall disclose conflicts to the audience prior to the presentation.

This disclosure identifies the presence or absence of any potentially biasing relationship of a financial, professional, or personal nature. A perceived conflict of interest would occur, for example, if you or a family member has, within the past 12 months, received any of the following from an organization whose product or service you discuss in your presentation:

- Salary
- Royalty
- Speaking honorarium
- Research appointment
- Board of directors remuneration or Consulting fee

A conflict of interest would also occur if you or a family member has any potential to benefit personally or professionally from the presentation, including owning stock in such a company.

For example:

- Work for a proprietary company delivering the presentation
- Have written a book about the topic
- Provide consulting services related to the topic, etc.

Any person in a position to control the content of this presentation as a planner, presenter, or content specialist, must disclose whether a perceived conflict of interest exists.

Is there a perceived financial, professional or personal conflict of interest (self or family)?

Yes, there is perceived conflict of interest

No, there is no perceived conflict of interest

If yes, please describe: _____
